

50 years

in proud partnership with American businesses

1956
1957
1958

1959

Organization founded as Kyoto Ceramic Co., Ltd. in Kyoto, Japan.

1970
1971
1972

Mita Copystar America is established in April of this year.

1973

1974
1975
1976

1977

Thermal printheads, which would be used in production printing, are created and later introduced in America.

1989
1990
1991

The very first ECOSYS model, the ECOSYS FS-1500, is launched.

1992

1996
1997
1998

1999

Mita is acquired by Kyocera Document Solutions, Inc. and becomes Kyocera Mita Corp.

2009
2010
2011

2012

The company is renamed as Kyocera Document Solutions America, Inc.

2014
2015
2016

2017

Kyocera makes the strategic decision to acquire DataBank.

2018

Kyocera Document Solutions launches its new brand identity with updated logo.

2019

2020

Kyocera launches its debut inkjet production printer, the TASKalfa Pro 15000c

Kyocera Document Solutions America, Inc. is named a Great Place to Work.

2021

REIMAGINE

2022

The REIMAGINE Dealer Conference takes place in San Antonio with special guest Magic Johnson.

Kyocera has 1,300+ employees, 10 subsidiaries, & 470+ dealers in America.

2023